Ad-hoc appointment of head of the Festival Directorate

3753. SHRI RAM CHANDRA VIKAL:
SHRIMATI VEENA VERMA:
SHRI KAPIL VERMA:

Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) since when the present ad-hoc arrangement to man the post of head of the Directorate of Film Festival has been continuing together with the reasons therefor; and

(b) what are the difficulties in appointing a permanent and regular Executive Director in the said Directorate?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI AJIT PANJA): (a) and (b) The present arrangement was made on 8th August, 1986, in view of the then forthcoming International Film Festival of India in January, 1987. The Public Enterprises Selection Board were not able to locate a suitable candidate for such appointment by that time. In the meantime, the Asok Mitra Committee, which went into the affairs of the National Film Development Corporation, had submitted its recommendations. One of its recommendations was that the Directorate of Film Festivals should be delinked from the National Film Development Corporation. This recommendation has since been accepted by the Government.
